This application is to be completed by all applicants who are involved in the physical operation of the camp but will not be supervising minors. This is not an employment application form. It is being used to help the district provide a safe and secure environment for those children and youth who participate in our programs and use our facilities. You are not required to answer or discuss any questions. If answers to questions are omitted or you refuse to discuss them, it will not automatically disqualify you from being selected.

Do you believe you are in the proper spiritual condition to perform this service?

Have you ever been convicted of a crime other than a minor traffic violation? If yes, explain.

Have you ever confessed to or been convicted of molesting anyone? If yes, explain.

Have you had any previous experience working in a children's or youth camp? If yes, explain.

CAMP POLICY

In the following information we explain what is expected of you as you work at the Campground and what you can expect from the Ohio District. These procedures will be modified from time to time. We feel this information will help to develop a better understanding between camp administration and personnel. We are not trying to answer every question. We have tried to use simple and clear language in order to avoid misunderstandings. If any statement in this information is not completely clear to you, please do not hesitate to call it to our attention for additional explanation.

We try to be careful to use only those who have a burden for the work of God, qualified to do the work, and who will be congenial with others working here. You have been selected with care. Every person is important to the success of this ministry. You have become an integral part of a team ministry. Together, we will make our contribution to the great work of God. We hope that you will be happy here in your work and anticipate a pleasant relationship, and profitable results for His kingdom.

Camp Manager

The Camp Manager is responsible for the operation of the camp and oversees all camp staff personnel. The Camp Manager reports to the District Board. Camp staff should recognize and respect a chain of referral, starting with Supervisor, or Camp Director, and then Camp Manager or Board Representative.

Personal Appearance

We expect all employees, both men and women, to dress with Christian simplicity and modesty. We care about your appearance, because as an employee you are a representative of the Ohio District United Pentecostal Church. Be conservative in your manner of dress, and avoid extremes of fashion and adornment. Neatness and cleanliness are expected.

Church Attendance

All personnel should be a regular attendant of church and Sunday School. We encourage all personnel to be generous in the support of his/her church with their finances. We strongly encourage all personnel to practice tithing, as this is God's financial plan to provide for His work.

Spiritual Commitment

All personnel serving the Ohio District Camp believe in the fundamental doctrines of the United Pentecostal Church International and practice the same, namely repentance, baptism in water by immersion in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, and receiving the Holy Ghost with the initial evidence of speaking with other tongues as the Spirit gives utterance.

Confidentiality

All matters of the Ohio District Camp are confidential. This includes matters related by campers or staff. If matters are commented on or brought to your attention by campers or visitors to the camp, you should advise the individual to take the matter to the proper administrative official without personal comment. You should never engage in discussion of these matters.

It should be understood that any violation of this confidentiality could possibly result in dismissal.

Absences from Camp

No camp personnel are to leave the Campground without prior approval of the appropriate supervisor.

Continued

Termination

Any camp personnel may be asked to leave if they cannot fulfill their responsibilities or do not fully cooperate with all camp policies or supervisors. "Full cooperation" includes not only actions but also attitudes.

Public Relations

Visitors to the District and Campground should be treated with respect and concern. Always present a cheerful attitude and be a helpful host or hostess. Visitors should always see our best side. Their impression of you will also be their impression of the District. Remember, you always represent the Ohio District.

Keys

All keys are to be checked out through the Registrar or Camp Caretaker. The keys are to be returned as soon as possible after they are through being used. At no time is anyone to have copies of keys made without the approval of the Camp Manager or Camp Caretaker.

3. Dorm personnel must be at least 18 years of age for the Sunday School camps and 23 for the Youth Camps. Any exceptions must be approved by the Department Head and Camp Chairman.
4. Before any member of a local congregation is contacted to help in any capacity at any camp, he/she must have the approval of his/her local pastor and must have been submitted for acceptance by the District Board or representative.
5. Must have camp staff application filled out - especially regarding medical information - if under 21 years of age.
6. Must work in harmony with staff and faculty.
7. Must be willing to put in long hours and be on call at any time. Will be in subjection to their supervisor and camp officials.

Regulations

1. Will abide by all rules of conduct and dress as those for the campers. Any violation of camp rules or policies will result in immediate dismissal from the grounds. (Children of staff members will abide by the rules also.)
2. All motor vehicles are to be impounded for the duration of the camp. No personnel will be permitted to leave the Campground for any reason without the knowledge and consent of the District Representative or Camp Director in charge of that camp. Anyone under 18 will turn over their keys to camp director.
3. No personnel or campers are permitted off the grounds after the night services, except in an emergency.
4. No staff members will be permitted down to the lakefront after dark except those patrolling the grounds.
5. No minor staff members shall be permitted to use the rooms in the motel unless accompanied by an adult.
6. All personnel must be seated in the Tabernacle for evening service (near the front) and shall remain there until service is complete. Only those whose duties require such shall be excused from any part of this rule.
7. No unmarried staff of opposite sex will be permitted to have physical contact anywhere on camp property (holding hands, hugging, embracing, etc.)
8. No staff members are permitted in rooms of member of the opposite sex at any time (with the exception of maintenance work requested by a supervisor).
9. During Adult Camp, all minor staff members must be in the afternoon services, unless excused by their supervisor. No personnel should be in the halls of the hotel or wandering around the grounds at this time.
10. The golf carts are only for the use of those so designated. AT NO TIME are the students permitted to ride the carts, except in the case of injury or emergency. Neither shall they be used in an unsafe manner.
11. The only persons who are up after curfew are those who are actually working, and they are to retire as soon as work is completed, unless permission is granted by the District Board Representative and personally supervised by a responsible adult. (All workers need to be in their rooms at the same time including dorm supervisors, kitchen help, concession, and cleaning crews, after a certain amount of time is allotted for socializing once work is done.)
12. Any final decisions concerning conduct will be made by the Board member on site at the Campground.
13. Adults and/or parents of minors shall be responsible for any and all damage done to camp property, including graffiti.
